June 30 Will Be 1944 ACP Deadline

Any farmer who expects to be paid for carrying out conservation practices under the 1944 ACP program, must have signed and filed his 1944 application for payment in the county office at Grayslake, by June 30, 1945.

As little time remains before that date, it would be well for farmers who have not signed, to see that this matter is attended to at once, Chester A. Faulkner, chairman, states.

"The county office expects information from Washington very soon, Faulkner observes, "advising what to do with applications held up because final evidence for poundage payments has not been received from the State Seed Testing Laboratory."

Cora Lobdell Services Held Tuesday Afternoon

Final services for Mrs. Eliza Lobdell, 86, Grayslake, were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the Strang Funeral home in Grayslake, with the Rev. David E. Cruce officiating. Interment was in the North Shore Garden of Memories.

Mrs. Lobdell died Saturday morning in St. Therese hospital, where she had been a patient since June 4. Her husband, Louis J. Lobdell, died Jan. 19, 1939, and a daughter, Cora Lobdell Walters, also preceded her in death.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Mary Dzelci of Antioch and Mrs. Martha Hucker of Grayslake.

Friends Honor Village President Bartlett in 25th Year of Service

Village President George B. Bartlett's 25 years of municipal service in that office and his birthday anniversary, which occurred Monday, were the dual incentive for a surprise gathering in his honor which was held by more than a score of his friends this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the village hall.

President Bartlett was presented a gold wrist watch by the group, and a congratulatory message bearing the names of those who had joined in honoring him.

While this is Bartlett's "silver anniversary year" as village president, he had served in other capacities in previous years. He has been a lifelong resident of the community.

Services Are Held This Morning For Mrs. M. Masters

Lake Villa Woman, 79, Dies After Illness of Three Weeks

The body of Mrs. Margaret Masters, who died Monday at her home in Crooked Lake Oaks subdivision, Lake Villa, at the age of 79 after a three weeks' illness, lay in state in the Strang Funeral home here until it was removed to St. Peter's Catholic church for services at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Burial was in Mt. Carmel cemetery. Mrs. Masters had lived in Lake Villa for the past 17 years, having previously resided in Chicago. She was born in Canada and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barry.

She was united in marriage with Frederick Masters on Nov. 24, 1887, in the Jesuit church, Chicago. Her husband preceded her in death June 4, 1943.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Rice, 207 Clayton street, Waukegan; a son, Charles E. Masters, Chicago, three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Manila Internee Enjoys Vacation at Loon Lake Cottage

An interesting visitor to the Antioch News office Tuesday morning was Selener Oftedahl, who with his family was interned in the Japanese prison camp at Santo Tomas, Manila, P. I., for 37 months, and who is now vacationing at Loon lake, where his sister, Mrs. J. M. Pedersen of 1212 Fair Oaks, Oak Park, Ill., has a cottage.

Oftedahl was a resident of Manila, where he was in the telephone business, and was among the civilians who were interned when the city was surrendered. His wife and daughter were with him in the internment camp.

Internees were allowed about one-half pound of food daily, he said. He himself lost 81 pounds during the three years. The average weight loss was 76 pounds. The women seemed, as a rule, to hold up better than the men under the starvation diet.

There were banana and breadfruit trees growing in their compound, but as soon as the fruit was ripe, the Japs would take it, he commented.

Fantastic prices were paid for additional food—when it could be obtained—Oftedahl observed. Oleomargarine was $90 a pound. For the last sugar he bought while in the camp, he paid $200 a kilo (a little over two pounds). The low food prices here were the most astounding thing to him after he arrived in the States. Many former Manila boys were among the troops who liberated the prisoners, and there were some happy reunions, he remarked.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vittek and daughter spent a two weeks vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. ("Duke") Duda, at Little America resort on Klondike point.

Added Purchases of E Bonds Still Needed

Although Antioch's total quota of bond purchases has already been met more than 100 percent, the township E bond purchases have not yet reached the desired proportion, Otto S. Klass, chairman for the Seventh War Loan campaign, states this week.

Purchases of E bonds so far have amounted to $40,000, he estimates, leaving $20,000 to be bought during the next two weeks.

Blanks for bond pledges may be secured by calling him at Antioch 53-R, he states. Additional volunteer workers are still needed, he says, in order to complete canvassing the township.

"I am sure that one does not need to remind you that these are the dark days for America, with all the ideals and principles of a land of the free at stake," he observes, "and that we are at war, defending the greatest form of government on earth. 'Whether we will keep alive the torch of freedom depends partly upon us, as builders of a strong home front. 'If we are at all interested in the future of America, then we must interest ourselves in seeing that this war loan drive is a success. This next week let's all buy an extra war bond, so our boys 'over there' will know that we are backing them over here.

"An E bond held until maturity pays 2 9/10 percent interest. Buy an E bond for your child now and help him or her through college later."

Committees for Legion Fete July 12-15 Listed

John L. Horan is general chairman for the Antioch American Legion post's annual summer festival, to be held Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 12-15, on the grounds west of the village park.

Heading the various committees are E. A. Swenson, commander, Roman B. Vos, James L. Waters, C. L. Heath, James Harvey, Willard Murphy and Walter K. Hills.

General chairman for the Antioch Legion auxiliary is Mrs. Lillian Hand, president. Mrs. C. L. Heath is chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. John L. Horan of the committees in charge of merchandise stands.

A contract has been made with Skinner and Ruggles to furnish the rides.

Construction Code L-336 Still in Effect

Despite the proposed relaxation of Construction Limitation Order L-41, new home-building, remodeling, maintenance and repair will be held back by the rigid lumber control order L-335, according to H. R. Northrup, secretary, National Retail Lumber Dealers' association, Washington, D. C., who is quoted in information received by Ed F. Vos of the Antioch Lumber and Coal company.

Lumber dealers will be in an embarrassing position when the Building Limitation Order L-41 is relaxed, if their customers do not understand that L-335 is still in effect, and still controls the dealers' purchases of lumber, says Vos.

Lumber control Order L-335 allows the dealer to sell only ten per cent of the lumber he sold in 1944 as "Free Lumber," namely, without written authorization or priority ratings, he continues. Even when lumber for "new construction" within homes was limited to $200 per year, there was not enough "free" lumber to meet demands in most localities, Vos explains.

New Order L-41 is said to raise "new construction" permitted without written authorization or priority ratings, from $200 per home to $1,000 per dwelling unit; from $1,000 to $5,000 on commercial stores, shops, etc.; and from $5,000 to $25,000 on industrial building. This will boost the dollar volume allowed without priority more than five times above the prior regulation.

In addition to the relaxations given above, the farmer still retains the right to spend $1,000 on his farm plant buildings per year.

Furthermore, permission will be granted for "new construction" of churches, schools and hospitals up to $10,000.

While increasing the amount from $200 on the home per year to $1,000 on each dwelling unit, the revised Order L-41 will provide that repair, maintenance, and remodeling (or new construction) must all come under the new $1,000 limitation.

"If the public is to receive the materials that the revised L-41 will lead it to expect, some revision will have to be made in L-335," Secretary Northrup is quoted by Vos. "Otherwise L-41 revised merely supplies a hunting license to permit people to try to get the materials with which to build."

Meet 1945 Goals —Inoculate Soybeans!

Farmers in this vicinity were urged today by C. L. Kutil, vocational agriculture teacher for Antioch High school, to make sure that all soybean seed planted this spring is properly inoculated, especially on land that has not repeatedly grown the crop.

The largest possible production of soybeans is vitally important with the worst shortage of fats and oils impending since the start of the war, according to Kutil. Supplies of butter, lard and other shortenings are expected to shrink rapidly this summer. The 1945 soybean acreage will remain about the same as 1944, yet soybean oil must make up a large part of the shortage.

"Inoculation is a cheap insurance of top soybean production," said Kutil. "Experiment station tests indicate yields on the average will be increased by 10 to 15 percent, some times much more.

"Inoculation also plays an important part in maintaining soil nitrogen, an important consideration when the fertility of many soils is under heavy drain due to the over-cropping demanded by the war. It is good business and it is patriotic for every farmer to produce every possible pound of fats for this last big push.

"Inoculation by either commercial cultures or by the use of properly inoculated soil can be effective, but commercial inoculants require much less labor, an important point this year. To be sure of obtaining them, inoculants should be ordered early."

Farm Equipment in Govt. "Surplus" Sale

The Office of Surplus Property, Department of Commerce, a disposal agency, designated by the Surplus Property board, is holding sale of farm machinery and construction equipment June 20 at the engineer depot, Granite City, Ill. This equipment was released by the War department.

Among the pieces of equipment at the depot which will be included in the sale are 44 unused hay rakes and a number of earth moving and road building items, including concrete finishers, bulldozers and an angle dozer.

Equipment dealers may obtain information concerning the sale and a list of the specific pieces being offered by addressing the Regional Office of Surplus Property, Department of Commerce, Machinery division, 209 South La Salle street, Chicago 4, Ill.

Rationing still fails to daunt some of the indefatigable Waltons around the lakes. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meyers say they caught 56 bluegills recently, and some other reports of pretty good catches bin coming in from yere'n there.

Frank West, the accordionist and singer, has been threatening to send in some items for th'Obs., but we ain't seen any yet. Village's '45-6 Budget Adopted Totals $22,345

Anticipated Expenses Are $1,905 Under the 1944-5 Levy

Antioch's annual appropriation ordinance, adopted at a recessed meeting of the village board last evening, calls for a total budget of $22,345.00 for the coming year. This is $1,905.00 under the previous year's ordinance, which called for the raising of $24,250.00.

Antioch's anticipated budget for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1945, and ending April 30, 1946, as set forth in the newly adopted ordinance, allows for expenditures of $4,050 in the general fund; $1,925, fire department; $4,650, sewer and water; $5,500, streets and alleys; $1,450, police departments; $2,000, street lighting; $500, contingent fund; $1,270, bonded indebtedness; $1,000, parks and playgrounds maintenance.

The ordinance will be published in full in next week's issue of the News. The 1944-5 appropriation ordinance was summarized as follows:

A total of $3,650 for the general fund, which includes executive salaries, legal, office and other administrative expenses; $3,200, fire department; $4,625, sewer and water; $3,250, streets and alleys; $2,250, police department; $1,900, street lighting; $500, contingent; $1,375, bonded indebtedness; $3,500, parks and playgrounds maintenance.

Barney Quint, 77 Lake Villa, Found Dead In His Home

Neighbors Discovered Body Wed.; Had Not Been Seen Since Tues.

An inquest into the death of Barney Quint, 77, Lake Villa, who was found dead in his home by neighbors Wednesday afternoon, was held in the Strang Funeral home this morning at 9 o'clock by a jury convened by Garfield R. Leaf, Lake county coroner. Quint's death was ascribed to a heart ailment, for which he had been under treatment by Dr. M. H. Gindich of Lake Villa, and was believed to have taken place some time Tuesday afternoon.

He was last seen some time between 1 and 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. His death was discovered when a neighbor called at his home on an errand yesterday afternoon and was unable to get in. A next door resident who was informed of this recalled that Quint had not been seen since the previous day and investigated, to find him lying on the floor.

The award was made for shooting down three Japanese aircraft in a single mission over Luzon.

Lt. Nielsen, pilot of a Navy Hellcat fighter plane based aboard a carrier, has also participated in actions in the China sea, at Formosa, Iwo Jima and Chichi Jima.

The citation was signed by Vice Admiral J. C. McCain, USN, carrier task force commander, and the presentation was made by Rear Admiral Matthias B. Gardner, USN.

The citation said, in part: "For distinguishing himself by heroism and extraordinary achievement while participating in an aerial flight in operations against the enemy in northern Luzon. As a pilot of a carrier-based fighter plane engaged in a mission he shot down three enemy aircraft. His courage and skill were inspiring and at all times in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval service."

Before entering the navy four years ago, Lt. Nielsen attended Lake Forest academy, the University of Michigan and Swarthmore college.

Rationing—What ARE We Going to DO About It?

Two interesting and widely divergent views on the rationing situation have been brought to our attention recently.

One was that of a housewife who said, "I don't know why they don't just take the rationing restrictions off and just let people buy whatever there is, and let the dealers charge whatever they want for it. If anyone can afford a thing, I think it's alright for them to buy it."

The other was a request from the Office of Price Administration to publish an appeal to the general public to help combat black markets and inflation.

Now, we don't think the lady who so frankly expressed her dislike of rationing was either an ignoramus or a traitor, and we figure the OPA isn't perfect, either, which we guess it would be pretty willing to admit.

However, we often wonder how many people have ever given much thought to the purpose behind rationing.

For instance, if prices were allowed to go as high as they would under the pressure of supply and demand, it is generally conceded that they would go mighty high. We are just wondering how often, in that event, the wife of a serviceman who was feeding two or three children on an allotment of $100 or $120 a month could afford to feed her children butter, meat, sugar, cheese and a few other foods that are "short" on supply and long on demand? And there are quite a few families where there are a number of small children and where income is not any too great. Just how would they fare? What about those elderly, handicapped or invalid persons who have small fixed incomes that allow for a meager living at best? Just how much could they afford?

Not everyone has been drawing "war wages"—and of those who do, many could not afford to meet inflated prices.

We don't know, of course, but it looks to us as though many of those who could AFFORD inflation prices aren't the ones who need the scarce foods the most. Our nominations for favored consideration wouldn't be based on an "ability to pay" standard, we are afraid, as it looks to us as though children, invalids and persons doing heavy manual labor would not get a very good deal that way.

Before passing on the OPA's appeal, we will concede that in our opinion the OPA has made some fairly juicy mistakes. At the same time, however, it's the best device we have for the purpose, and cooperation from the general public ought to make it more, rather than less, efficient.

The OPA's appeal is as follows:

"Help Your OPA Help You

"Black markets threaten YOUR family pocket-book and YOUR food supply.

"ANY overpricing price purchase—ANY buying of rationed goods without ration points—hurts YOUR future security.

"BEWARE BOOBY TRAP PENNIES

"Those 'just a few cents' overcharges add up to dollars thrown away by YOU.

"... Ration chislers cheat YOU and YOUR relatives and friends in service.

"ACT TODAY TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS

"1. Look for ceiling price lists in the stores.

"2. Pay only legal prices—and ration points in full."

"3. Report any violations to the local War Price and Rationing board. The Board Price Panel will investigate—and not involve YOU.

"Only with YOUR help can the price line be held.

"Fight inflation by beating black markets now."

It doesn't sound so terribly thrilling and important, does it?

But maybe each individual soldier, sailor, marine, coast guard or air corps member doesn't feel that he's winning the war all by himself, either. Maybe many a Wac or Wave wonders why she enlisted to perform trivial duties that don't appear to have any great bearing on the progress of the conflict.

No doubt many a riveter with a headache or farmer putting in long, weary days in the fields when he'd rather go fishing just wonders how much his work contributes to the whole thing. Lots of women doing Red Cross work get pretty tired of making surgical dressings, stitching clothes or knitting socks and sweaters, and wonder if they get to those who need them most.

The answer to it all, insofar as we've been able to figure it out, seems to be that it all helps a little, and maybe some of it helps a lot.

In other words, we're all pretty selfish and would just as soon let the other guy do the sacrificing and the doing without, or anything else that's unpleasant, uncomfortable, miserable, difficult or tragic....or just too much bother.

But even if rationing is a blundering makeshift at best, it's going to need the help of lots of people before it can work better, and no one can begin to help any sooner than right now.

Safety in Summer Time

"Wet Paint" signs marched in series up Main street for a time Friday afternoon as highway crews renewed the centerline marking on Highway 21-83 for the summer.

Slacks and slack suits were in the majority, as compared with dresses, in the garb of the "fair sex," and elderly folks as well as youngsters strolled by the office window licking ice cream cones with a blissful air.

All of the above by the way of saying "summer has come."

And with summer's arrival, and with a great increase in boating and fishing activities, not to mention swimming, perhaps it would not be amiss to quote the "Rules for Safety in a Boat" compiled by Charlie Holmes' Outing club.

"A boat is only as safe as you make it," says the club, advising:

"Do not stand up or change seats while out in a boat.

"Do not drink before going out in a boat.

"Fish hooks are made to fish with, not to drag for bodies.

"A rowboat is just as safe as a steamboat. It's up to you. If you want to commit suicide, there are many ways that are easier for everyone concerned. Dragging the lake for bodies is a lot of unpleasant work.

"Never try to cross the lake during a high wind. You may be a sailor and can swim, but the best swimmers have been known to drown while trying to 'show off.'"

To all of which, we believe, the Antioch Rescue squad, as well as resort and summer hotel owners will murmur a hearty "Amen!"

ter, "Subjects and Methods," Lois Stohr; (The fifth honor student, Pvt. John Swartz, who recently entered the service, is stationed at Camp Hood, Texas); selection, Girls' chorus, "Sweet is Thy Name" and "Neapolitan Nights"; "Looking Forward," Judge Edward Ruetz, Kenosha, introduced by Ted Dean; class song, "Alma Mater," senior class; presentation of diplomas, Marlin M. Schnurr, principal; recessional, high school band.

The Wilnot Mothers' club is sponsoring a card party in the school Tuesday evening, June 19. Hostesses will be Miss Erminie Carey and Mrs. Russell Elwood.

MARITIME SERVICE

DOUBLES ITS QUOTA

Since V-E Day, U. S. Maritime Service recruiting quotas for apprentice seaman training have been doubled, Comdr. R. T. Sexton, Chicago regional recruiting officer, has announced.

"Three times the number of merchant ships must sail to deliver the same firepower against Japan as was brought to bear against Germany," he said, "because of longer supply lines in the Pacific."

Men from 17 to 50 are eligible for training in deck, engine, steward, radio and purser-hospital corps departments, says Sexton. Volunteers may secure information from the U. S. Maritime Service at 844 Rush street in Chicago and 312 East Wisconsin avenue in Milwaukee.

FOUR COLLINS BROTHERS ARE IN ARMED SERVICE

Sgt. John Collins is expected home this week on furlough from overseas duty in the European theater of action. His brother, Pvt. William B. Collins, who entered the service May 26, is stationed at Camp Robinson, Ark. Two other brothers are in the service, Pfc. Don, in England, and Pfc. Gordon, in the Philippines.

"Just received the Antioch News and sure am glad to receive it," writes Vincent Charles Stonis, AS. "Hope you keep on sending it. It sure is nice to read what is happening back there. Even though I am close to home, yet I guess that is the only way I can get the news of what is going on."

"We are kept pretty busy here. I will finish my boot training June 19 and hope to get a nine-day leave, so I will be around town and hope to thank you for the paper personally."

Mrs. Frank Whitfield, Lake Marie, recently received letters from members of her family telling of experiences of Sgt. Larry Dilgs in Czechoslovakia at the time of the German surrender. Mrs. Dilgs is the former Miss Jeanette Swarz, a granddaughter of the Whitfields. Sgt. Dilgs wrote to his wife that the German troops "actually hurried to surrender to us instead of to the Russians."

Dave Larson, 18, of Rosecrans, was brought to Antioch for first aid for second degree gasoline burns on his left leg from knee to ankle, last Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock. He was removed to St. Therese hospital.

Farm Lease

The farm lease should be written. Many landlords and tenants try to get along with oral contracts. The difficulty arises when they do not understand each other and find that they have different ideas about certain matters. The written lease removes this chance of disagreement and insures more harmonious relations between the landlord and tenant. Both lose when they disagree, particularly if the disagreement results in a move for the tenant. Forms for written leases are available in the offices of many of the county agents.
